GERMAN SITUATION BECOMING MORE QUIET EACH DAY

The Government Has Established Its Authority at Kiel, Leipsig and Other Points

General Strike Settled by Giving Workers Greater Power in Government

ED L. KEEN,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

London, March 22—Dispatches here today indicate the situation in Germany is becoming more quiet.

The government has reestablished its authority at Kiel and Leipzig, dispatches said, and the attorney general has started proceedings against Dr. Von Kapp and General Von Luettwitz, the leaders of the insurrection. An official Berlin wireless gave these terms as the agreement between labor unions and the government for calling off the strike.

A new cabinet will be formed with the cooperation of the labor unions.

Officers of the Von Kapp insurrection will be punished.

Reorganization of the administration through appointment of republican officials.

Socialization of industries including nationalization of the mines.

Stronger measures to conserve and increase the supply of food stuffs.

Prosecution of illicit traders.

Reorganization of the reichstag under the leadership of republican officials with special recognition of the labor union.

Removal of all known reactionaries from the government.

Rumors that a communist army was marching on Berlin caused great excitement in the German cabinet yesterday, dispatches said. The inner city was fenced with double barbed wire entanglements.

Machine guns had been placed at regular areas through Berlin, dispatches said. Holes had been knocked in government buildings for the erection of machine guns.

One dispatch said that radicals in the strike movement had issued a manifesto declaring workers will remain out until they have obtained a complete solution, the independent socialists demand disbanding of all military police, and the creation of a revolutionary defense corps, abolishing the state of siege and the immediate nationalization of the mines.

Berlin, March 21, night—The Ebert government met here late today to consider the situation brought about by spartan outbreaks throughout Germany.

President Ebert called his ministers in a session after he reached the city at 11 a. m. For the present, it was understood, Gustav Noske, will retain his position as minister of defense.

Government officials confidently predicted a return to normal conditions despite the fact that the general strike is still partly effective. They believe a majority of the workers will return to their posts tomorrow.

The independent socialists, it was understood, had taken additional concession over those granted by the government Saturday. The independent believe that the serious situation in western Germany where many towns are under the control of radicals, will force the government to grant its demand for still more radical reforms.

Berlin was beginning to assume a normal aspect today. Radicals were erecting a revolutionary council today. The council, it was said, will vote on labor union proposals to call off the general strike.

All Baltic troops have withdrawn from Berlin, according to officials of the Reichswehr.

There was small fighting in the Friederichstrasse today when a truck load of Reichswehr troops mistook their comrades in the trenches for spartans.

Dispatches here said the situation in western Germany was quieter today except in those districts where troops have been withdrawn.

Radical leaders insisted the general strike will be continued, but it was believed most of the workers will be back at their posts by the end of the week. Fourteen special policemen were killed in a fight in Moabit, a suburb of Berlin, late yesterday, it was learned today, as they attempted to disperse a meeting of radical workmen.

Suburbs in north Berlin have been cut off completely from the rest of the city. This district has been one of the strongholds of the radicals who adopted military tactics to guard their position. They dug trenches, mounted machine guns and erected barricades. Workmen were reported to be heavily armed.

The independent socialists were responsible for President Ebert's refusal to accept the resignation of Defense Minister Noske. They held that for Noske to retire at this time would be too great an indication of weakness on the part of the government.

Government officials said that martial law has been proclaimed in Leipzig where troops occupied the city after violent fighting with the radicals. Hundreds were reported killed.

No Food if Soviet Government is Established

Paris March 22—The American mission in Berlin has presented Premier Bauer with a communication that the United States can not furnish any more food to Germany if a soviet government is established, said a Berlin dispatch today.

Balance Ebert Government Goes to Berlin

Stuttgart, Gr., March 22—The remaining members of the Ebert government left here Saturday night for Berlin on a special train guarded by soldiers armed with machine guns.

Ellsworth Re-Enters Fight for Governor

Says Other Candidates Do Not Care to Take up Issues He Represents

(By United Press)

Mankato, Minn., March 22—Congressman Franklin Ellsworth re-entered the race for governor of Minnesota today.

He withdrew from the race soon after a conference with nonpartisan league chiefs. Soon after his withdrawal Ellsworth wrote to all candidates for governor asking them to answer a list of questions regarding their platform.

"None of the candidates saw fit to answer my letters," said Ellsworth. "If they do not care to take up the issues that I consider most important in the campaign I will go before the people with them."

Ellsworth favors repassage of the ore tonnage tax, vetoed by Governor Burnquist last fall, lower property and personal taxes and announces himself on a number of labor issues.

English Duchess
Granted Conjugal Rights

(By United Press)

London, March 22—The Duchess of Marlborough, who was Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York, today was granted a decree restoring her conjugal rights. The decree is effective in fourteen days. The Duke did not contest the court action. It was believed to be preliminary to an act of a complete divorce.

I received this as personal prejudice on the part of Benson.

The instructions Sims alleged Benson gave him were: "Don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes. It is none of our business who pulls their chestnuts out of the fire. We would as soon fight the British as Germany."

"I have always considered Benson as perfectly honorable, fair and square, and a high minded gentleman." "But any man who is intensely anti-British or anti-French will also be held by those sentiments."

Pittman attempted to show Sims had given to the press his letter of January 7 which contained the sensational charges against the navy department.

"You are trying to show I fixed this thing," Sims told Pittman.

"I am no spring chicken in this belief and I am not putting my head to the noose unnecessarily."

Sims admitted the contents of his letter might have leaked out through the navy department but denied connection with the alleged leakage.

Hearing of Libel
Suit Is Begun

(By United Press)

Eau Claire, Wis., March 22—The $100,000 libel suit of the Nordmand Publishing Company of Grand Forks, N. D. against the Fremad Publishing company of this city was taken up before Judge Wickham in circuit court here today. It was expected a jury would be obtained quickly.

The suit is based on publication in the form of a communication by T. T. Fuglestad, a North Dakota farmer, attacking the opposition to the nonpartisan league, and referring to the Nordmands as the "bought press." Much of the nonpartisan league politics was expected to be brought out in the discussion.

Admiral Benson Gave Sims Anti British Orders

Sims Names Him as the Officer Who Said, "We Would as Soon Fight the British as Germany"

(United Press)

Washington, March 22—It was Admiral W. S. Benson, who warned Admiral Wm. Sims, "don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes," Sims declared to the senate naval inquiry today.

Several weeks ago Sims told the senate naval affairs committee that such a warning had been given to him during a conference of the navy department as he was about to sail for Europe only a few weeks before this country entered the war.

Benson at the time of the alleged utterance was chief of naval operations. He is now head of the shipping board. Sims said the incident occurred either just before or just after he had been in Secretary Daniels' office receiving his orders to go to Europe.

"It was just after I came out of the secretary's office or just before I went in, I can't remember which, that I was in somebody else's office, I think it was chief of naval operations, and I think I was present—that these instructions were given by a certain officer of the navy department," Sims said. "I have tried to avoid making a personal reference."

"I think the committee should have the name of the officer," Chairman Hale said.

"Well it was Admiral Benson who was the chief of naval operations," Sims said. "I received no other instructions from him. It was preceded by nothing, followed by nothing, and it was given in sincerity. I left immediately."

Sims referred to Benson as being "intensely anti-British." He said his statements were repeated in substance on two occasions.

Sims said when he met Benson in Paris 6 months later the admonitions were repeated in substance, and the third time the same thing happened in London.

I received this as personal prejudice on the part of Benson.

The instructions Sims alleged Benson gave him were: "Don't let the British pull the wool over your eyes. It is none of our business who pulls their chestnuts out of the fire. We would as soon fight the British as Germany."

Ratification Chances for Suffrage in Delaware Bad

(By United Press)

Washington, March 22—Chances for ratification of woman suffrage in Delaware were described as "very bad" at the suffrage headquarters here today.

In Washington, leaders hoped the ratification would be accomplished today. Legislators in both Delaware and Washington met to consider the suffrage amendment which would allow women voting rights equal to those enjoyed by men. Thirty-four states have ratified and favorable action in Delaware and Washington would make thirty-six, the total necessary for final ratification.

Suffrage leaders declare that they were at present without a majority in either branch of the Delaware legislature. In Washington, which already has women suffrage by state enactment, suffragettes are sure of victory. If ratification fails in Delaware a special legislative session will be asked in Vermont and Connecticut.

Records Show Over Two Million
Workers Were Effected—Estimated One Million This Year

RALPH COUCH,
(United Press Staff Correspondent.)

Washington, March 22—Approximately one million workers will be effected by strikes, lockouts and wage controversies during 1920, it was estimated here today on the basis of labor department records.

The records show that in the fiscal year ending June 1919 approximately 2,300,000 workers were involved in strikes, lockouts and wage controversies referred to it for settlement.

Losses of workers through wage controversies and strikes this year were at least $50,000,000 it is believed. In 1919 total losses in wages are believed to have been twice this sum, or $100,000,000.

No reports are obtainable on the losses of employers and the extent of decrease in production resulting from strikes.

In 1919 however sixty per cent of the cases referred to the labor department for settlement were still in the controversy stage and had not developed into a strike or lockout. They were adjusted peacefully. But the cases referred to the labor department for adjustment report only small percentage of the actual number of miners on strike. Thus the steel strike which is claimed to have made idle 300,000 men do not figure in the labor department records. Neither does the coal strike, although Secretary Wilson personally took hands in it.

Evidences were abundant that with the coming of spring workers in all lines were turning their attention to the wage scale.

In many cities builders and machinists already have opened negotiations for wage increases. Building mechanics in most cities receive $1.00 an hour. In a few cities demands have been presented for an increase ranging from $1.25 to $1.50 an hour.

The industrial situation now is near the tense moment from the labor standpoint.

WOMAN'S REALM

FREDRICK SOUTHWICK
PLEASES AUDIENCE

Program Opened With Two Contrasting Arias, "Evening Star" and
"A Love Song"

GROUP SHAKESPEARE SONGS

Program Agreeably Varied by Introduction of Violin Solo by Julius Witham

Seldom has an audience formed so integral a part of the program as did the large, enthusiastic one that greeted Fredrick Southwick at Elk's hall Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Southwick realizes that (to paraphrase Shakespeare) a song's prosperity lies in the ear of him that "Evening Star" from Tannhauser and "A Love Song" from Jewels of the Madonna. The Wagnerian favorite was sung in English, the more modern love song in Italian, but the contrasts of both style and sentiment were unmistakable.

Following this came a group of Shakespeare songs as varied in sentiment as in melody although the composers were of widely different styles and periods. A group of sacred songs followed including the "Gloria" by hears it, so he takes pains to get into good fellowship with his audience.

Instead of assuming the role of entertainer, he seems to say "Come let us enjoy this song together." He also gains good will by assuming critical ability and wide knowledge of repertoire on the part of his hearers. The result is such complete sympathy between audience and singer that the latter is able to give of his best which was certainly the case in this instance.

The program opened with two contrasting arias—the lately obscure Buzzi Peccia and "Before the Cruelty" by Frank La Forge which were sung with dramatic feeling and power.

The program closed with a group of four containing "The Bitterness of Love" by James Dunn. In this Mr.
Southwick did his very best work.
Mr. Southwick responded with three very pleasing encores, the last number being "Little Bit O'Honey" by Carrie Jacob Bond, sung by request.

The program was agreeably varied by the introduction of a violin solo by Julius Witham, which received enthusiastic applause.

One of the hostesses, Mrs. Walter Wieland, played the strenuous program of accompaniments as if she enjoyed it as much as the audience did. The other hostesses were Mrs.

J. L. Frederick and Mrs. George D.
LaBar.

Family Celebration

A family celebration was held on March 17 at the home of Mrs. J. B.
McPherson, Sr., in honor of Mr. Mc-Pherson's seventy-fifth birthday. The rooms were decorated in green. Three tables of cards were played after which a delicious lunch was served.
Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McPherson, Jr., of Ft.
Ripley; a daughter, Mrs. A. C. Fiske of Monticello, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest M. Brandt of Brainerd and Mr. and Mrs. W. I. McPherson of this city.—

THEED'S FEET

By LILLIAN CYR.

(Copyright, 1920, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)
Feeling buoyant with all the confidence and assurance due to a young man in his first long trousers, Theed Laurence, Jr., stood before a poster calmly surveying the announcement of the sophomore high school dance.

Although he had a perfectly good-looking pair of feet, and took lessons from an excellent master, Theed was in the awkward squad when it came to dancing in public. It was very natural, therefore, that he should suffer himself to lose a bit of his confident bearing when he saw that Anita Wilkins, the new girl in town, had approached him so quickly that they were greeting each other directly in front of the poster.

She stopped and looked at the fute-ful announcement. "Oh! It will be on Friday evening!" she exclaimed.
"I'd love to go, but I don't know any of the boys here," she added wistfully.

Immediately the boy defended the lone girl. "I'll take you," he said.

It was now Friday evening, and Anita and Theed were approaching the school. The grounds and rooms were ablaze with light. Theed was frightened and miserable; he had an idea that the evening would be disagreeable. Anita was chatting gaily, all unconscious of his anxiety; but when they had reached the hall and she left him to take off her wraps, he breathed more freely.

The school's military band was playing an accompaniment to gay laughter and the rhythm of dancing feet—the dance was on.

Theed groaned inwardly as he thought of the last time he had come to a school dance. By his clumsy dancing he had sent one couple spinning over a settee.

He was brought back from his horrible reminiscences by the reappearance of Anita, who sweetly said that he could have her first dance.

"Miss Wilkins," he began, hoarsely.
"I really don't—er—think—I really don't think I'm feeling well, and if you will please—er—excuse me—"

Anita feared he was ill, and offered to sit out the dance with him, but as he would not hear of it, she reluctantly allowed herself to be led away by Fred Marston.

Theed fled to the cement walks on the grounds. Why was it that he could dance without a break when he was alone and yet not be able to when he reached a hall? He tried it out on the walk. He danced smoothly and easily. He became encouraged.
He would try it on the floor with the other dancers that very night. However, on second thought he decided that if he should make a break he would not want to humiliate Anita, and therefore he asked another girl for the next dance. His trial dance worked! He could dance in public! And with such a good dancer as Anita he was sure that his dancing would be even better.

He was just about to ask Anita for the next dance when someone on the platform announced that two prizes would be awarded to the best dancing couple of the next dance number. The prize for the young lady was a white silk bag with pink piping, and a membership card to the school's exclusive Billiken club. The prize for the young gentleman was a membership card to the Billiken fraternity and a fraternity pin. Theed hadn't counted on this, and he was again about to flee when he saw Anita looking longingly at the lovely, pink-trimmed favor. He now noticed that the pink just matched the ribbon on her dress. She turned and looked at him in the same wistful way as on the day he had asked her to the dance. His ebbing courage remounted, and he crossed over to her. "You'll have your pretty bag," he said, with smiling assurance. He would show people that he could dance. The flash and pep of the military band suited his mood, obstinate and resolute, and that of Anita, who was determined to win the white silk bag with the pink piping. They darted nimbly in and out among the throng of dancers. On and on went the dance; on and on whirled the competitors.

Almost abruptly the dance came to an end. There was a general turning of heads toward the band platform as the judges stepped into the hall to announce their verdict.

"The prizes for the best dancing of the evening are awarded to Miss Wilkins and Master Laurence."

After receiving the prizes they were greeted by great applause, and the prize winners were made to perform a dancing skit by the admiring crowd, which was promptly encored and encored.

They were walking slowly toward her street. "You dance wonderfully!" she exclaimed.

Theed was watching the stars and fingering his fraternity pin. Would she? He wondered if she would. He held up the fraternity pin, mutely seeking her eyes as they were passing under a corner light.

"Will you wear it for me?" he said hesitatingly.

She bowed her head in silent consent, and suffused with a sudden joy, he pinned it, his hands trembling, on her white dress.

He was a trifle dazed as he left her at her gate by the brilliance of his success. He paused for one breathless moment under an elm tree near the sidewalk; then he took a long breath and turned, a champion dancer, ex-ultantly home.

TIME LIMIT EXTENDED

By a special ruling of the United States Treasury Department just announced, banks are authorized to accept partial payments on 1920 Treasury Savings Certificates up to and including October 31 of next year.

This means that the public may indefinitely avail itself of the recently inaugurated plan whereby a $100 Treasury Savings Certificate may be purchased for as low as $2 a month.

The Ninth District Government Savings Organization is notifying all banks of this action on the part of the Treasury Department.

Purchasers are reminded that these Treasury Savings Certificates have the advantage of having the interest compounded automatically. If an investor buys bonds, it is necessary to cash the coupons semi-annually and therefore they must re-invest in order to compound the interest. On amounts of moderate size the interest will not be large enough to invest readily in a loan. In the Savings Certificates it is invested for the purchaser for the period of five years. The Savings Certificates are registered and thus if the securities are lost the owner is protected.

NORTHWEST NEWS

S. D. Primary

Pierre, S. D., March 22—Candidates for president will go direct to the people of South Dakota tomorrow in the first direct primary the country has witnessed this year.

Unless the sentiment of the Republican state convention is reversed Major General Leonard Wood will receive South Dakota's Republican nomination.

Democrats expect to nominate James W. Gerard, minority state convention nominee. The convention endorsed President Wilson but the president has indicated he will not be in the race.

Five Republican candidates have entered the race for South Dakota's endorsement. Beside General Wood there are Governor Frank O. Lowden, Illinois; U. S. Senator Hiram Johnson of California; U. S. Senator Miles Poindexter, Washington and Herbert Hoover. Hoover has not sanctioned his candidacy in the primary but friends in various parts of the state are working hard for him.

Opposing Gerard for the Democratic nomination is James O. Monroe of Illinois. Other Democrats, although not entered on the official primary ballots, are expected to figure in the balloting. Some of those who have the support of group workers are Attorney General Palmer, William G. McAdoo and William Jennings Bryan.

Wood Speaking Tour

Pierre, S. D., March 22—Major General Leonard Wood, candidate for South Dakota's Republican primary endorsement, was winding up an eight day speaking tour in the western part of the state today.

He was scheduled to speak at Sturgis early today and make several stops on his way to Rapid City where he is expected to close his campaign tonight.

Supreme Court Cases

St. Paul, March 22—The Twin City cases were scheduled to be heard in supreme court here today. Tomorrow two Hennepin county cases are scheduled.

Wednesday the supreme court is docketed to hear the case of the Dodgson Fruit company vs. William Galanter, respondent, brought up from Stearns county court. One Minneapolis case is booked.

Cases on the calendar for Thursday are: John R. Kelly vs. First State Bank of Rothway and K. K. Peterson, respondent, order Wilkin county; and William B. Bergson, trustee for George E. Blackwood, bankrupt in bankruptcy vs. John A. Blackwood, appellant, Judgement St. Louis county.

One Koochiching county case brought up on order is expected to be heard Friday; William H. Dayton, vs. Mae A. Dayton, of International Falls.

Insane in Prisons

New York, March 22—Fifty per cent of the men in penal institutions in this state do not belong there, said Governor Smith, in a speech in this city.

Inadequate provisions for public health—physical and mental—have brought about this condition, the governor added, as well as the great increase in the number of mentally deficient and insane persons. The state executive frequently attacked the apathy of the legislature and the public generally toward the problem of public health.

"There is something wrong in this state," he continued. "Considerably more than one-half of the men in prisons belong in hospitals. It is not correctional care that they need; it is a doctor's attention. We care for them two years, let them out; they stay out two years and then they come back again. Nothing is done to remedy their defects."

Postal Employees Unite

Vienna, Austria, March 22—The International Federation of Postal, Telegraph and Telephone Employees effected its organization at a conference of delegates from Italy, France, Germany, Holland, Norway and other European countries. It was agreed to conduct the struggle for improved conditions mainly on the economic field and to affiliate with the International Federation of Trade Unions. The conference urged delegates to work against war and everything leading to war. The executive committee consists of representatives from Austria, Holland, France and Italy.

 Who Visit West Indies

This "traveling bar" made a big hit with the sailors of the Atlantic fleet which is now in West Indian waters. The photograph, taken at the race track at Bridgetown, Barbados, shows a native woman carrying beer. She carries the beer can in a bag which rests in her hand.

1920 Census Count of St. Paul 234,595

Percentage of Increase 9.2, Smallest Recorded Since 1850

St. Paul, Minn., March 22—St. Paul has a population of 234,595, according to 1920 preliminary census figures announced from Washington. This is an increase of 19,851 in the last 10 years, equivalent to 9.2 per cent over the count of 214,744 for 1910.

The percentage of increase for St. Paul is the smallest recorded for this city in any of the eight enumerations by federal census agents.

Discussions of a request for a recount will take place at the St. Paul association E. M. McMahon said.

The 1910 count of 214,744 was an increase of 51,479 or 31.7 per cent over 1900. In 1900, the population of St. Paul was given as 163,065, an increase of 29,969, or 22.5 per cent over 1890. The 1890 figures of 133,156 were 91,683 greater than the 1880 census showed, or an increase of 22.1 per cent.

In 1880 the population of St. Paul was 41,473, a gain of 21,443 or 107.1 per cent over the count for 1870. The 1870 figure of 20,030 was 9,629 more than the census count of 1860, or 92.6 per cent. In 1860, St. Paul was credited with a population of 10,401, having gained 9,289 over the 1850 census, an increase of 89.3 per cent.

The 1850 population of 1,112 was the first federal census taken in St. Paul.

"The Brown and Silver's out in front!"

Spur's colors—brown and silver—the colors of a sure winner! Spur is there with that good old tobacco taste. And the "wise ones" among cigarette smokers have gone right with Spurs from the start.

There's always room at the top and Spurs have made the grade on their merit. Here's why:

American and imported tobaccos, blended by a new method that brings out all of that natural, good old tobacco taste.

Satiny, imported paper that is crimped, not pasted, making a slower-burning, easier-drawing cigarette.

Spur has the qualities to keep it the greatest cigarette for enjoyment and for price in the race today.

BAD BREATH

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through taking them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. They act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood, and purifying the entire system. They do that which calomel does, without any of the bad after effects. Take one or two every night for a week and note the pleasing effect. 10c and 25c a box.

President—Leland Avery.
Vice President—Howard Brotherson.

Secretary—Wm. Bacon.
Treasurer—Gordon Babcock.
Teacher—Mrs. Clarence Smiley.
The new name of the class is True Volunteers; the class motto "Over the Top" and the class song "Who Will Volunteer."

The annual meeting of the officers and teachers of the Sunday school was held in the church Sunday afternoon and the following officers were elected for the coming year.

Superintendent—W. H. Wagner.
Assistant Superintendent—Albert Erickson.

Secretary—Mrs. Fred Luken.
Treasurer—J. A. McKay.
Organist—Ellen Dillan.

Superintendent Primary—Mrs. W. H. Wagner.
Asst. Superintendent Primary—Mrs. Lee Babcock.

Superintendent Beginners—Miss Blanche Kimball.
Secretary—Miss Cecile Morrison.

Treasurer—Walter Lowrie.
Organist—Mrs. Chas. Risk.
Supt. Cradle Roll—Mrs. J. A. McKay.

Mrs. J. A. McKay will have the missionary topic in the opening exercise next Sunday morning.

Miss Preston Field, worker for the state of Utah, will be with us and tell of her work next Thursday evening. She is coming at the request of our missionary society and let us greet her with a full church. No offering and no charge of any kind. Come and hear her.

First Congregational Sunday School

Yesterday was a very pleasant day, both outside and in our Sunday school. The attendance was splendid, being the largest since last spring. The primary department reported an almost perfect attendance, only one or two being absent. Several new scholars were also reported.

There is much competition among the members of the school in regard to the Easter offering. The offering boxes have not yet arrived, but the pennies are being saved just the same.

Study class will meet at usual on Wednesday at 4:30 at the parsonage.

Christ needs and wants you. He wants your children. If you do not belong to a church or Sunday school, why not come to us? You will receive a cordial welcome.

Salvation Army

Interest in the Company meeting, or Sunday school as it is commonly called, is at high pitch with 81 in attendance yesterday. Our aim is at "Mr. One Hundred" mark for Sunday afternoon. Practically every attendant was able to repeat the memory verse. Total attendance of young people and children for the week was 121.

Many members of the Sunday school have been authorized to collect for the "Self-Denial" Effort, for Heathen Missions.

Week of prayer and self-denial is from March 28 to April 4th 1920. Our Sunday school is helping to educate and make Christians of over 14,000 children of the criminal tribes of India who are directly under the control of the Salvation Army in that land, and attending our day schools which number 550.

Swedish Bethany Sunday School

The Bethany school broke all attendance records for this year yesterday. There were four classes with 100 per cent attendance, the junior girls of Miss Soderlund, the larger girls of K. S. Bredenberg, the junior boys of Frank Anderson and the primary class of Miss Fredstrom in which class there were also three new scholars. The work of the Easter program is progressing very nicely.

First Baptist Church

The Rev. Dr. J. Russell, a prominent Baptist missionary from the Philippine Islands will speak at the First Baptist church Tuesday evening at 7:45. Everybody is invited. He has a great message of instruction and inspiration.

One Result of Winter

Life indoors with lack of exercise and heavy food is apt to throw the digestive organs out of order. WARM WINDS AND SUN

Unit to Render Roads Serviceable for Autos—P. J. Oberst Explores the Roads

Warm winds and sun are doing much to dry out roads and make them serviceable for cars.

P. J. Oberst on Sunday explored the regions north of Brainerd by driving to the N. P. hospital and then turning northwestward and attained the reaches of Gilbert Lake. Carefully feeling his way over sections of ice, snow, and water and sand, he negotiated the distance.

The Gulf lake road is said to be rapidly drying out.

Thirteenth street road is full of last winter's bumps and sloughs.

Range busses are traveling on schedule.

NOTICE

First meeting of the Crow Wing Game, Fish and Bird Protective Club will be held at 8 p. m. Thursday, March 25th at Gardner hall.

Carlos Avery, State Game and Fish Commissioner, will talk on game and Fish Protective clubs, their value to the county and state and the great good that has been done throughout the country by these clubs.

If you are interested in protecting wild life in this territory, attend this meeting. If you want to see the fishing kept good here, do your bit and come.

Gardner hall has been rented so that a large crowd can be accommodated.

The public is invited. Special invitation to ladies.

NOTICE

The Rebekah social club which was to meet Tuesday, March 23, has been postponed to Tuesday, March 30.

Don't Neglect the Little Ones

Mrs. J. S. Pitson, 376 E. 156th St., Cleveland, O., writes: "I can't speak too highly of Foley's Honey and Tar. When my little girl has a cold I give her Foley's Honey and Tar and that stops her coughing in a little while." Children like it. It contains no opiates. It is healing, soothing, prompt in action. H. P. Dunn.

Cooked and Uncooked Food.

Some one with an analytical turn of mind long ago differentiated man from other animals as "the cooking animal," and if we may believe the Greek legend, it was Prometheus who stole fire from heaven with which man might cook. Yet so far as man's diet is concerned, if we may believe many writers on dietetics, Prometheus made a mistake and shortened the lives of men by making the kitchen range possible. They hold to the theory that man should, like the other animals, eat his food raw and uncooked, and then the span of his years would lengthen far beyond the threescore and ten assigned to him by the psalmist, and centenarians would be as plentiful almost as blackberries in summer time.

Think This Over.

You don't have to belong to the "laboring classes" to be honest; you don't have to belong to the "capitalistic class" to become wealthy. Most other popular beliefs are about as well founded as those.—Exchange.

Are You Losing "Pep"?

Do you feel tired all the time? Does your back ache? Do you feel that you are not so spry as you used to be? Foley Kidney Pills tone up and invigorate the kidneys, banish backache, rid the blood of poisons. Rev. W. F. M. Swyndole, Macon, Ga., writes: "I am ready at any time to speak a word for Foley Kidney Pills." H. P. Dunn.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers—Meat forms uric acid.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

FIERY, ITCHY ECZEMA IS HEALED RIGHT UP WITH THIS SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It never fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Menthosulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

FOR LUMBAGO

Try Musterole. See How Quickly It Relieves

You just rub Musterole in briskly, and usually the pain is gone—a delicious, soothing comfort comes to take its place. Musterole is a clean, white ointment, made with oil of mustard. Use it instead of mustard plaster. Will not blister. Many doctors and nurses use Musterole and recommend it to their patients. They will gladly tell you what relief it gives from sore throat, bronchitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest. Always dependable.

LABOR NEWS

A. F. of L. Opponents Adopt New Methods

Washington, March 22—Intelligent capitalists and their retainers no longer claim that "Gompers is attempting to deliver the labor vote." These individuals find that labor is determined to vigorously apply its non-partisan political principle and that the A. F. of L. executive is simply doing his duty as an officer of the trade union movement.

Since its inception, in 1881, the A. F. of L. has urged this political theory. It took bold men to resist the frenzied partisanship of 30 and 40 years ago, but the organized workers maintained their position. Of late years other groups of citizens have accepted the A. F. of L. theory, and now the more intelligent of labor's opponents realize that their charge against President Gompers is ridiculous. So they hasten to assure trade unionists that their political program, as such, is perfectly proper, but evil days would befall our country if one class dominates the government for its especial benefit.

Would Nullify I. & R. Law
San Francisco, March 22—Officers of the California state federation of labor warn trade unionists against a proposal that would destroy direct legislation in this state.

Petitions are being circulated to increase the number of signatures required for any initiative petition relating to taxes from 5 per cent to 25 per cent.

"There is no good reason for limiting the initiative," the unionists say. "With the 8 per cent requirement, and under normal conditions as in 1916 and 1918, more than 70,000 verified signatures are required to put a measure on the ballot. With a 25 per cent requirement more than 200,000 signatures would be necessary to qualify a measure for a place on the ballot."

"The people can be trusted—even to have a voice in saying how they shall be taxed!"

Teachers Must Stand Up
New York, March 22—There is only one way for the present difficulties and that is to stand up, says Edwin J. Brunner, writing in the American Teacher.

"Through his own efforts, not through the charitable efforts of others, he must compel society to dignify him adequately and to recompense him adequately."

Which is the more American—to slink away one by one, or to stay on the job and unite to secure rightful dues owed by society to the educators of future society?

"Wherein is manifesting any American spirit in waiting until outside professions are so alarmed about your status that they take up the cudgel and wield it for you?"

Convertible Skates.
A Chicagoan has invented a convertible skate. Which reminds us—though it is nothing appertaining to the subject—did you ever notice how quickly a man sobers when his wife sights him? The convertible skate is not new by any manner of means.—Buffalo News.

Hot Water for Sick Headaches
Tells why everyone should drink hot water with phosphate in it before breakfast.

Headache of any kind, is caused by auto-intoxication—which means self-poisoning. Liver and bowel poisons called toxins, sucked into the blood, through the lymph ducts, excite the heart which pumps the blood so fast that it congests in the smaller arteries and veins of the head producing violent, throbbing pain and distress, called headache. You become nervous, despondent, sick, feverish and miserable, your meals sour and almost nauseate you. Then you resort to acetanilide, aspirin or the bromides which temporarily relieve but do not rid the blood of these irritating toxins.

A glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, drank before breakfast for awhile, will not only wash these poisons from your system and cure you of headache but will cleanse, purify and freshen the entire alimentary canal.

Ask your pharmacist for a quarter pound of limestone phosphate. It is inexpensive, harmless as sugar, and almost tasteless, except for a sourish twinge which is not unpleasant.

If you aren't feeling your best, if tongue is coated or you wake up with bad taste, foul breath or have colds, indigestion, biliousness, constipation or sour, acid stomach, begin the phosphate hot water cure to rid your system of toxins and poisons.

Results are quick and it is claimed that those who continue to flush out the stomach, liver and bowels every morning never have any headache or know a miserable moment.
